

Charities supported by the Alan Fleming Tournament

AMOR Healing Kitchen provides healthy, nourishing meals to people facing critical or chronic health challenges. They empower teen volunteers by bringing them into their kitchen to teach them culinary skills, nutrition, and leadership skills, and they in turn prepare the meals for the clients. The clients enroll in a 12-week program and each week receive three entrees w/ sides, a soup or salad, a healthy snack, a healthy dessert, a menu, and a fresh bouquet of flowers donated by a local florist. AMOR Healing Kitchen utilizes organic and locally sourced produce ensuring high quality, nutrient dense ingredients in the meals.

The Blessing Basket program serves the neediest of families on Johns Island and Wadmalaw. Food has become increasingly more difficult to acquire and significantly more expensive during these unsettling times. Blessing Basket volunteers distribute between 7,000 and 8,000 pounds of food each month which provides approximately 5,000 individual meals for qualifying residents. Each blessing basket contains shelf staples along with fresh bread, vegetables, fruit, plus frozen meat and other healthy items. The clients who receive a Blessing Basket during this difficult time have been even more appreciative and grateful for the items we are able to give them.

USTA Sanctioned Tournament

Tournament Information

Fleming Highlights

- Each year the Seabrook Island Racquet Club attracts senior tennis players from more than 20 states to compete in its annual clay court championship. This year, 2021, after a year's hiatus due to COVID-19, the popular tournament returns to the southern senior tournament schedule.
- While the main attraction of this top-tier competitive event has been great tennis in a spectacular setting for more than 30 years, the Fleming Tournament also serves local business interests. As in years past, the event offers sponsorship/advertising opportunities to support the tournament, which help offset the significant expenses of producing this event, and at the same time, promotes your business.

Please consider partnering with the Fleming Committee as we bring fabulous tennis back to the Low Country!

Thank you in advance.
